Films are cultural artifacts created by specific cultures. They reflect those cultures, and, in turn, affect them. Film is considered to be an important art form, a source of popular entertainment, and a powerful medium for educating—or indoctrinating—citizens. The visual basis of film gives it a universal power of communication. Some films have become popular worldwide attractions through the use of dubbing or subtitles to translate the dialog into other languages. The individual images that make up a film are called frames. In the projection of traditional celluloid films, a rotating shutter causes intervals of darkness as each frame, in turn, is moved into position to be projected, but the viewer does not notice the interruptions because of an effect known as persistence of vision, whereby the eye retains a visual image for a fraction of a second after its source disappears. The perception of motion is partly due to a psychological effect called the phi phenomenon.

With the delay of the 2021 Grammy Awards to March 14 citing the current surge of COVID-19 cases in California, on January 13, 2021, the SAG Awards were delayed once again to April 4. SAG-AFTRA criticized The Recording Academy for not respecting the scheduling of other award presentations.⁴² In Canada, the pandemic shutdown forced the cancellation of both the 8th Canadian Screen Awards⁴³ and the 22A Quebec Cinema Awards.⁴⁴ Both programs ultimately announced their winners through virtual livestreaming, the Canadian Screen Awards presenting film winners on May 28,⁴⁵ and the Quebec Cinema Awards presented on June 10.⁴⁶ As of August 2020, neither the Academy of Canadian Cinema and Television nor Québec Cinéma have announced their plans for the 2021 ceremonies.

At the start of March, the James Bond film No Time to Die, which was scheduled to premiere in March 2020 and to wide release in April 2020, was postponed to November and then subsequently to April 2021.⁸⁴ No Time to Die was the first film to change its planned release outside of China because of the early outbreak of COVID-19, and has opened discussions of dramatic implications on the film economy: many other productions had avoided scheduling releases at the same time as the 25th Bond film, and its new November date is in the busy holiday release period, leading to low box office intake in MarchApril and uncertain intake in November.²¹ However, the postponement could reportedly generate more publicity for the film, and is also taking the familiar November release slot of the past two Bond films.⁸⁵ It has also been suggested that other high-profile films will follow and postpone releases, creating a similar effect.²¹⁸⁴ Several other films soon followed in postponing their releases worldwide: the heavily promoted Polish slasher film W lesie dziś nie zaśnie nikt Nobody Sleeps in the Woods Tonight was postponed from March 13 to some point in the future when the situation had settled,⁸⁶ and the political documentary Slay the Dragon had its theatrical release moved from March 13 to April 3.³¹
